DAVIS-PUTTER SCHOLARSHIP FUND

CRITERIA

We provide need-based grants to students who are able to do academic work at the college level or are enrolled in a trade or technical program and are actively working for peace and justice. Davis-Putter scholars are both graduate and undergraduate students and must be living in the U. S. and planning to enroll in an accredited school. Grantees must receive college credits for the time period covered by their grant. Early recipients fought for civil rights, against McCarthyism, and for peace in Vietnam. More recently, grantees have been active in the struggle against racism, sexism, homophobia, and other forms of oppression; building the movement for economic justice; and creating peace through international, anti-imperialist solidarity.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF HISPANIC JOURNALISTS

CRITERIA

NAHJ offers scholarships each year to full-time undergraduate and graduate students who are pursuing careers in journalism in English or Spanish-language media, or both. Each of the following criteria is weighed equally when NAHJ considers which students to select as recipients of the scholarship: (1) Commitment to the field of journalism – Students must demonstrate a sincere desire to pursue a career in the field of journalism. This applies to students who are planning careers in English or Spanish-language print, photo, broadcast or online media (2) Academic achievement – There is a 2.5 minimum grade point average to qualify for NAHJ scholarships. Academic performance will play a role in deciding which students are awarded scholarships. (3) Financial need – The economic status of a student's household will be taken into consideration in making scholarship selections. (4) Awareness of the community– The Latino community is the fastest-growing segment of the U.S. population. While striving to portray all people in a fair and accurate manner in the coverage of stories, student journalists need to be aware of issues that face the Latino community and Latinos in the newsroom.

CRITERIA

The Red Thread Fellowship is available to college-bound women of international backgrounds who will be entering an American college or university in the coming fall.

We believe that the scholarship award can achieve truly positive results only if it is coupled with the recipient’s clarity and focus on her professional and personal goals. In support of this, the Associates will serve as mentors to the award recipients, guiding them to prepare a five-year personal strategic plan that includes values, strengths, and career goals, as well as the key developmental and career milestones to be accomplished. The mentorship component also gives Scholars an opportunity to benefit from Associates’ experiences, unique skill-sets and global networks in order to help them achieve their objectives.

SCHOLASTIC ART & WRITING AWARDS

CRITERIA

Each year, the Alliance partners with more than 100 visual arts and literary arts organizations across the country to bring the Awards to local communities. Teens in grades 7 through 12 apply in 29 categories of art and writing. Submissions are juried by luminaries in the visual and literary arts, some of whom are past award recipients. Panelists look for works that best exemplify originality, technical skill, and the emergence of a personal voice or vision.

While scholarships for graduating seniors are designated through the Alliance's Scholarship Partners they are not guaranteed. Each university has the final decision-making authority on awarding scholarships. Please note that when reviewing your financial aid offer the Scholastic Awards Scholarship may be incorporated into your financial aid package at the initial point of the offer and will not constitute an additional offer.
