

Instructions: Throughout the training you will work in breakout groups to complete a sample logic model. Feel free to draw from your current programming throughout this exercise. Download or copy this document before you begin working.

Goal: The overall purpose of your program

What are the resources?

What are we going to do?

What will be accomplished?

What are the short, medium and long term results of the program?