

BOSTON, GET FREE TUITION FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGE!

College is too important to be limited to those who can afford it. That's why the City of Boston has committed to pay for up to three years of college for all residents through the Tuition-Free Community College (TFCC) Plan.

AM I ELIGIBLE FOR THE PLAN?

All Boston residents regardless of age, income, or immigration status are eligible for TFCC funds. To be eligible, you must:

- Be a Boston resident.
- Enroll in an associate degree program or short-term certificate program at a partner college.
- Complete the FAFSA*

*Students who are undocumented, DACA students, or have TPS, do not need to complete the FAFSA to receive financial support through TFCC.

WHICH COLLEGES DOES THE PLAN PAY FOR?

- Benjamin Franklin Cummings Institute of Technology*
- Bunker Hill Community College
- Massasoit Community College
- MassBay Community College
- Roxbury Community College
- Urban College of Boston

*There are a limited number of TFCC slots available at Franklin Cummings Tech.

WHAT PROGRAMS ARE COVERED?

Any associates degree program or short-term certificate programs available at the TFCC partner colleges. To learn more about the available programs and how to apply, visit the relevant college admissions website.

WHAT COSTS ARE COVERED?

- All tuition and mandatory fees remaining after any other applicable financial aid has been applied.
- $250 each semester for up to three years of college-related expenses (such as books or transportation).
- Debt of up to $2,500 for students with an outstanding balance at a partner college that is preventing a student from re-enrolling at that college.

HOW DO I APPLY?

Apply to a program at the participating TFCC college of your choice and they will apply the funding as part of the financial aid process. To contact a partner college, visit Boston.gov/Tuition-Free
