

JANUARY 13, 2024

CIVIC SUMMIT

COMMUNITY OVER EVERYTHING

Brianna Millor

Chief of Community Engagement Cabinet

A Dorchester native and the daughter of a Haitian immigrant, Chief Millor brings years of local government experience to the Community Engagement Cabinet. To eliminate silos between Boston residents and City Hall, Chief Millor oversees various Community Engagement departments at City Hall including 311, ONS, Office of Civic Organizing, Spark Boston and more.

Chief Millor's direction of the Community Engagement cabinet began in January of 2022, but her passion for community is long standing. After first joining the City Council President's Office under Mayor Wu in 2016 as a Communications Intern, she returned in 2018 as Administrative Director and later as Civic Engagement Director. Millor has represented Mayor Wu's Council Office on the Board of ABCD and previously served on ABCD's Neighborhood Programs/Planning & Evaluation (NPPE) Committee. She is a graduate of Quinnipiac University with a Bachelors in Political Science and a Masters Degree in Public Relations.

Becoming a Civic Leader - Training the Next Generation of Leaders

2:00 PM - 2:45 PM

Join us at "Becoming a Civic Leader" an interactive panel discussion moderated by Chief Brianna Millor of the Community Engagement Cabinet. Gain essential skills for effective community leadership from M. Lee Pelton, president and CEO of The Boston Foundation, Matthew Broude, Co-founder of The Queer Neighborhood Council, Commissioner Kristen McCosh, the city's Disability Commissioner and

JANUARY 13, 2024

CIVIC SUMMIT

COMMUNITY OVER EVERYTHING

President of BU SOCA and youth leader Brianna Bourne. This session will delve into understanding civic roles, developing key leadership traits, mastering community engagement, and navigating ethical dilemmas. This panel promises to inspire and transform your approach to civic leadership.