

Entrepreneurial City

A photograph of a coffee shop interior. In the foreground, there are several wooden crates filled with fresh produce: one with green apples, one with red apples, and a wooden bucket with pumpkins. A small sign on the pumpkins reads "Mini Pumpkins! $0.47/lb". In the background, a service counter with a glass display case is visible, where two staff members in red shirts and aprons are working. The shop has a rustic, industrial feel with wooden beams and warm lighting.

“ Co-working or study space here with weekly or even daily memberships - there are so many people working in JP coffee shops that there's no way you can get a seat to actually enjoy a coffee! Shows there's demand for shared office space.

— Lee, Roslindale ”

Imagine if we could provide jobs at many skill levels by helping small and established businesses grow.

Rate this idea!

We could help businesses by supporting...

(Check all that appeal to you)

- Small business center to help navigate city regulation, permitting, and licensing requirements
- More shared work-spaces, incubators, and accelerators
- New areas where Boston's strongest sectors can add office space and grow
- Innovative approaches to provide affordable commercial and industrial parks

How would you make this idea better?

Where do you live? (Zip code) _____